1. Q. Are acronyms discouraged?

A. If acronyms are used, define them at first.

2. Q. Will the Workforce Board be reviewing the bids?

A. It will be staff evaluations and staff recommendations; however the proposal will be seen by the Golden Sierra Workforce Board after the evaluation has taken place.

3. Q. What does the entity think is appropriate regarding budgetary projection, including the amount of time estimated to complete the full services?

A. GSJTA sent out a Request for Information (RFI) to solicit this type of information; however, no responses were received that would give an idea what the market rates are for these services. The cost reasonableness will be a factor on who receives the awarded.

4. Q. Based on the RFQ this seems to be strictly administrative function; could you explain the difference between GSJTA function and who is awarded.

A. The function is not considered administrative in nature, the administrative part would be negotiating the MOU's between the partners, what we're looking for is someone with expertise in systems alignment to facilitate those discussions; the awardee is going to be a critical component of how the Workforce Board provides oversight to the partners, and avoid duplication of efforts.

5. Q. Is there one site where all the partners are colocated?

A. Yes, currently we have one comprehensive center located in Roseville. Additionally, there are 2 affiliate centers, one located in Placerville (El Dorado County) and one in Markleeville (Alpine County)

6. Q. Do the MOU's cover the three counties?

A. Yes

7. Q. Will there be an opportunity to ask further questions?

A. Yes, the questions should be submitted, in writing, by January 24, 2017 by 5:00 p.m. Questions should be directed to magnussen@goldensierra.com The Q & A will be published on the Golden Sierra website.
